WHAT CASLPO MEANS BY “IN GOOD STANDING” FOR MENTORS

DATE: October 2018

REVISED: December 2020

---

CASLPO’s Mentorship Guidelines indicate that mentors must be “in good standing” with the College. The following criteria clarify the definition of “in good standing”, and will be used to assist the College in verifying whether a member is eligible to be a mentor:

The mentor must:

- 1) Be a General member without any terms, conditions or limitations on their certificate of registration issued by any committee of the College.
- 2) Be an experienced practitioner with a minimum of four years of professional practice in the area (audiology or speech-language pathology) in which mentorship is provided and satisfies CASLPO’s currency requirement.
- 3) Not have been:
  - a. found guilty of professional misconduct and/or incompetence;
  - b. found to be incapacitated
  - c. issued a caution in person from the Inquiries, Complaints and Reports Committee within the last 6 years; or
  - d. required to complete a Specified Continuing Education or Remediation Program (SCERP) from the Inquiries, Complaints and Reports Committee within the last 6 years
- 4) Not be the subject of an investigation, a capacity inquiry, or a complaint (unless the complaint is being considered under sections 26(4) and 26(5) of the Health Professions Procedural Code<sup>1</sup>).
- 5) Not have any existing charges against them in respect to a federal, provincial or other offence.
- 6) Not be the subject of a proceeding respecting allegations of professional misconduct, incompetence, or incapacity by a body that governs a profession.
- 7) Have an up-to-date and completed Self-Assessment Tool (SAT) and be compliant with the College’s Quality Assurance Program requirements.
- 8) Not have a history of repeated suspended or revoked registration.
