

WHICH SELF-ASSESSMENT TOOL SHOULD I COMPLETE?

The College's Quality Assurance program provides members with four self-assessment tools: the Clinical SAT, Non-Clinical SAT both in English and French. To decide which SAT you should complete, review the table below or watch a short video <https://youtu.be/XKYmmrXBSaU>

Clinical SAT Instrument d'auto-évaluation	Non-Clinical SAT Instrument d'auto-évaluation non clinique
I screen, assess, manage, treat, consult, educate patients, families or significant others on a regular basis (part-time or full-time)	My position entails 100% management, administration, education, research and/or sales
The majority of my role is management, administration, education, research and/or sales, but I also provide minimal patient intervention on a regular basis: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Working in a screening clinic once a month • One or two private patients per year 	My position entails 100% management, administration, education, research and/or sales. Under exceptional circumstances I do a minimal amount of clinical intervention or consultation, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • filling in for an absent clinician • providing a small facet of intervention for demonstration or teaching purposes • consulting to a member or another regulated health professional about one of their patients
I am a researcher who directly screens, assesses or treats participants with speech, language, swallowing or hearing disorders
I directly supervise a university speech, language, swallowing or hearing clinic providing patient intervention. I am the responsible SLP or audiologist for the patient's intervention
I am currently unemployed, but when working screen, assess, manage, treat, consult and/or educate patients and their families on a regular basis

If you are not sure which SAT to select, contact Alexandra Carling, Director of Professional Practice and Quality Assurance at CASLPO.

Tel: 416-975-5347 or 1-800-993-9459 extension 226, email acarling@caslpo.com